* The Commonwealth of Virginia defines a declared pregnant woman as a “women who has voluntarily informed the licensee [George Mason University], in writing, of her pregnancy and the estimated date of conception” A declaration of pregnancy may be withdrawn at any point by notifying the RSO. If the declaration is not withdrawn, it will be considered expired one year after submission.

I am submitting this Radiation User Declaration of Pregnancy Form to inform the Radiation Safety Officer that I am pregnant. The estimated date of conception was on or about _____(month/year).

I understand, pursuant to 12VAC5-481-710 and 10 CFR 20.1208, the exposure to the embryo/fetus is limited to 0.5 rem (5mSv) during the entire gestation period. I will continue to minimize my exposure and participate, when applicable, in an exposure monitoring program for pregnant workers.

Please check one of the following:

- I have questions related to the radiation protection of embryo/fetus and would like a professional in radiation safety to contact me at: _____
- If I have questions related to the radiation protection of the embryo/fetus, I will contact the Radiation Safety Officer at 703-993-4699/sfordc@gmu.edu.
